Preface

We, the annual staff, bestow upon you our gift, the 1955 Lair, as a tangible token portraying a year filled with great happiness, many joys, and a few sorrows.

Being filled with reminiscences, this gift will bring you hours of poignant memories of pleasurable experiences both now and in the future years. Hoping that you will reflect upon the memories in this book, we have strived to build it, not around any specific activity, but around all of the activities of our school.

We hope this Lair will so illuminate your nostalgic memories of IHS and the Tigers that you shall never permit this spark of reminiscence to fade:

"Tiger, tiger burning bright

In the forest of the night . . ."

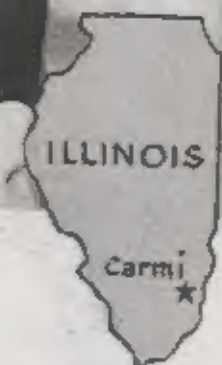

WILLIAM BLAKE

Dedication

Last year a red-haired Yankee crossed the Mason-Dixon Line and entered the ranks of the T.T.'s (Texas Teachers.) With her quick repartee, flashing smile, and congenial and inspirational classes, Miss Marilyn Bingman easily won for herself a place in the hearts of I.H.S. students. It is, therefore, a pleasure and an honor to dedicate the pages of the 1955 LAIR to one who has worked unceasingly with us to make this book a success . . . Yankee Marilyn "Bing" Bingman.

Tiger Football Team

Under the excellent supervision of Chick Holden, Gene Hodge and Wayne Tripp the 1954-55 football squad weathered a year of stiff competition. Despite many injuries the Tigers managed to maintain a good record.

The co-captains for the year were seniors Donald Shelby and Richard Stearns; both men spurred the Tigers on, proving again, that even in defeat there is honor.

Capable managers are an asset to any team; Irving High has just this type of managers; they are Jimmy Carroll, Wayne Coe, Richard Raitt and Bill Grubbs. These men were efficient and competent in their care

Each year Irving High has been proud of their Tiger Football team. The team has always been composed of the most capable athletes, who, after extensive practice, joined the "A" squad. Many of our "A" team players each year have been seniors. Practicing diligently to replace these graduating seniors was the "B" team. This group has gained experience by long hours of practice and competitive play, and will form the "A" team of tomorrow.

Basketball

Coached by Fred Morris, the Tiger basketball team showed much talent and enthusiasm during the 1954-55 season. The squad was sparked by the team captains who were elected by the players according to their athletic abilities and leadership qualities.

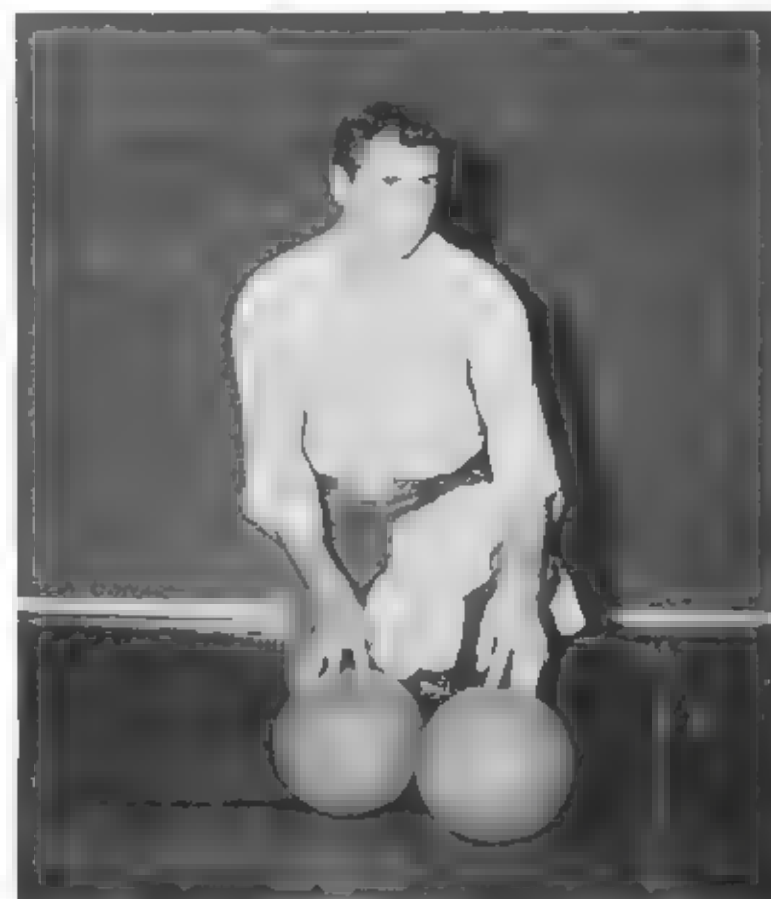

Irving's growing interest in the basketball team has helped them to improve and put forth additional effort in their field.

"B" Team

Under the supervision of Miss Peggy Hughes, the Irving High School Tigerettes racked up an interesting record during the 1954-55 season. The team, sparked by their captains, La Quita Carlisle and Jo Kee, displayed an enthusiastic demonstration of athletic ability and interest.

Another team of which we were proud was the "B" team. These girls, under the student direction of the captains, Virginia Brewton and Patsy Ramsey, practiced hard and racked up a good record in their competitive play.

Baseball Team

One of the most fascinating spring sports is baseball. Showing much versatility in batting, fielding, and running, the Tigers had a very stimulating season. Under the expert coaching of Gene Hodge, the team displayed the fine sportsmanship and athletic ability which is traditional at IHS. The fine cooperation among the players is an attribute to the team sports at Irving High. There has never been an overabundance of student support of our baseball team in the past. In subsequent years Irving Students should not neglect their duty to spring sports or any other school endeavor because their success depends on you, the students of IHS.

Majorettes

Possibly the most colorful group during the football season was the Band Majorettes. The majorettes, Sandra Reed, (head-majorette), Billye Wigley, Nancy Riley, and Barbara Lee, added to the spectacular performances of the band with their twirling, prancing and dancing.

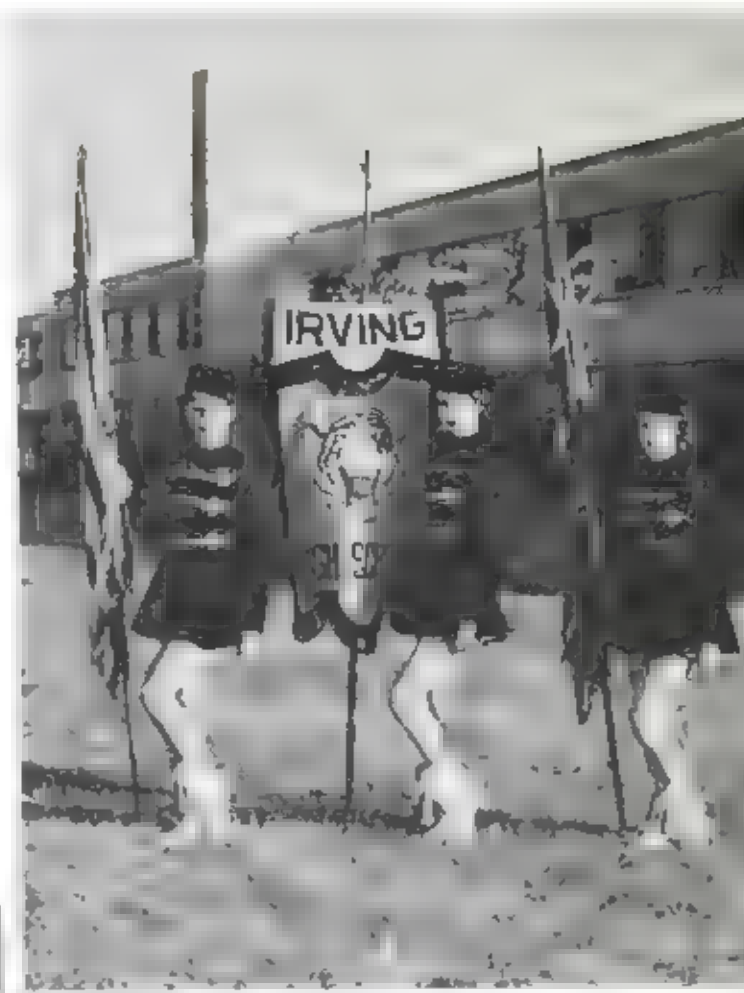

Drum Major

The effectiveness of a high school band's maneuvers on the football field depends largely upon the Drum Major's capability.

Winston Forrest, a senior, has shown much talent in fulfilling his position as Drum Major of the IHS Band during 1953-55. Through long hours of practice he has helped develop and improve the band's marching performance.

Tiger Band

Seated: S. Turner, G. Brown. Standing: W. Forrest, A. Edmonson, J. Winn, S. Reed.

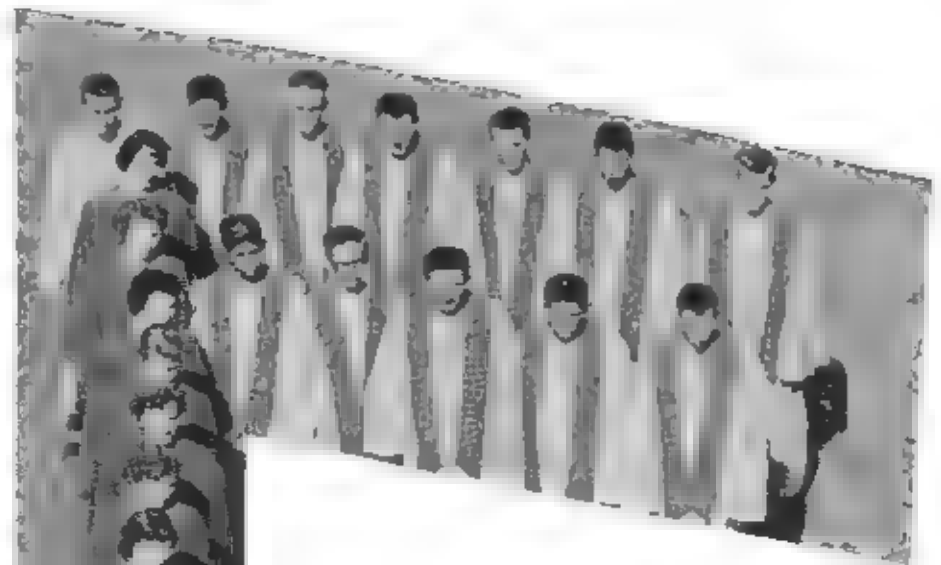

The intriguingly intricate maneuvers of the IHS Tiger Band entertained the crowds at half-time during the football season. The band proved its serious musicianship during the concert season.

The band, directed by Hal J. Gibson, successfully completed another well-rounded year—parades, football games, the "Varsity Review," and concerts. The band officers, military type, are Sandra Turner, Gayle Brown, Judy Winn, Andy Edmonson, Sandra Reed, and Winston Forrest.

A Cappella Choir

The IHS A Cappella Choir, directed by Miss Mary Lee Franklin, completed another successful year of concerts and programs.

Being a select group of forty-four young musicians, the choir was one of the finest musical organizations at Irving High. Two members, Maud Ann Pruitt and Gilbert Porter, were All-State choristers. The year was climaxed by a performance of an amusing operetta, The Mikado, by Gilbert and Sullivan.

I-Teens

The students that form the I-Teens club at IHS have become one of the best-known girls' organizations in Irving High. It is a social-service club that has strived to put service before social activities. Their continuous project has been to strive to be courteous and friendly, and to be of service in their school, community, and country.

The club was sponsored by Miss Tommie Williams, under the student leadership of the officers which were Barbara Bucher, President; Beverly Burgess, Vice President; Marianne Neal, Recording Secretary; Anita Walker, Correspondence Secretary; Shirley Reynolds, Treasurer; Martha Skinner, Parliamentarian; Social Chairman, Marilyn Lee; PTA Aide, Barbara Boulware; Publicity, Joyce Watson.

National Honor Society

Because of its high standards, it is a definite honor to belong to the National Honor Society, one of the oldest organizations at IHS. A student must have maintained a ninety, or above, average, have good character, have good leadership qualities, and be of service to others to be accepted by this society.

The main function of the National Honor Society, which is sponsored by Miss Claire Turner, is to be of service to others and to strive to improve the scholarship, leadership, and the character of the student body. The officers of this organization were as follows: President, Marijo Williams; Vice President, Kaleta Jones; Secretary, Beth Ebert; Treasurer, Sharon Winn.

Girls' Sports Association

The GSA, an organization for the many girls at Irving High who are interested in sports, had a very successful year. The girls had fun while they learned about the various sports and earned their letters. The members practiced during their P.E. classes or after school, and their tournaments were held at night as their parents, friends, and schoolmates observed their skill.

ADMINISTRATION

Clockwise: Mr. T. J. Lee, Mr. Claude Walker, Mr. W. H. Benson, Mr. Charles Young, President; Dr. J. L. Beard, Miss Laverne Haley, Mr. E. S. Von Reyn, Vice President; Mrs. Alex Guard, Mr. Rupert Harris.

School Board

With the election of new members, the board made changes in its policies and plans. Under the leadership of Mr. Charles Young, president, the board completed many worthwhile projects for the improvement of our school and our community.

The school owes a great debt of gratitude to these board members who have earnestly dedicated their time and talents in improving our school and in making it an institution for advanced learning.

Senior Class

The graduating class of '55, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Ruth Compton, Miss Carolyn Wolfe, and Mr. Hal Gibson, has again proven its ability to achieve outstanding feats. Because of marvelous co-operation of the class, each program, each activity, and each project sponsored by the Seniors met with tremendous success. An evening in a "Garden of Stars" will always be remembered by every Junior and Senior who attended the Prom.

Not only will a memory of IHS remain with each Senior, but also a memory of the Senior Class of 1955 will forever remain with IHS.

Junior Class

Because of their officers and sponsors, Mary Lee Franklin, Frances Stewart, and Natalie Faith, the Junior Class had a wonderfully successful year.

In athletics Junior students became valued players and contributed much to many IHS victories. Members of the class were active in the Student Council and Band.

The Juniors of '55 have completely prepared themselves to occupy the anxiously awaited position of Seniors of IHS.

Sophomore Class

The 1954-55 Sophomore Class of Irving High School set new records last year in various ways. For the first time in IHS history a sophomore student competed in the finals for Student Council President. Another honor also bestowed upon a sophomore was the much coveted award of "Most Handsome Boy."

Under the leadership of their president, Johnny Limmer, and the other class officers, the Sophomores soared to new heights achieving several goals and many accomplishments both scholastically and in the athletic field. Acting as capable sponsors and advisors were Ann Grillot, Tommie Williams, and Mrs. Ray Hines.
